HELP US TO REACH OUR GOAL OF $100,000

Proceeds to support the programs and services of Cookeville Regional Charitable Foundation.

The Cancer Fund provides assistance to local cancer patients through many different ways including gas vouchers, utility bill payments, house payments, groceries, medicine and medical supplies. A diagnosis of cancer is stressful enough without the added burden of financial concerns and the provision of basic necessities.

The Caring Hands Fund helps other patients at CRMC with basic needs upon discharge - especially prescription medications that might not be covered by insurance or may be too costly for the patient.

The Save-A-Life Pink Ribbon Project provides free mammograms to uninsured and underinsured women in our area who would otherwise forego this important cancer screening. Early detection is an important factor in predicting the survival outlook for a woman with this disease.

The mission of the Cookeville Regional Charitable Foundation is to improve the quality and compassion of healthcare for our patients and community by raising funds for charitable healthcare activities and investments in Cookeville Regional Medical Center. The Foundation is an independent 501(c)3 nonprofit committed to offering charitable assistance to local patients; supporting healthcare services for the community; promoting compassionate programs for patients; and encouraging investment in our regional, community-owned hospital: Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

Join us for an evening of celebration and/or a day of golf to help a worthwhile cause!

TOURNAMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Bill Buckner will be available for autographs from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon Friday, August 18

Bill Buckner played 22 years in the Major Leagues, primarily for the Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox. He had a lifetime batting average of .289 with 2,715 hits, 174 home runs, 498 doubles and 1,208 RBI's. He won one batting title and was named an All-Star in 1981. He is one of a small number of players who had 200 hit-seasons in both leagues and played in four decades.

Buckner grew up in Napa, CA, and was drafted out of high school in the 2nd round of the MLB draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers. His first manager was Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda. Buckner first made it to the majors with the Dodgers in 1969 at the age of 19 and was hitless in his one at-bat. He won a permanent starting job in 1971. He split time in the outfield and at first base, hitting .271 with 5 HR and 41 RBI.

In a five-player deal in 1977, Buckner and Ivan DeJesus were traded to the Cubs for Rick Monday. The move also saw Buckner shift primarily to first base. Buckner enjoyed success with the Cubs, winning the National League batting title in 1980 after hitting .324 and playing in the 1981 All-Star game. He also led the league in doubles twice in 1981 and 1983. In 1984, the Cubs traded Buckner to the Red Sox for pitchers Dennis Eckersley and Mike Brumley. Buckner immediately became the starting first baseman.

In 1985, Buckner tied a Major League record by playing in 162 games at first base. He also broke the Major League record with 184 assists and also had 110 RBI's. In 1986, Buckner had 102 RBI's and 18 home runs in helping the Red Sox reach the World Series, where they lost to the New York Mets in seven games. Over the next few years Buckner played for the California Angels, Kansas City Royals and again with the Red Sox, with whom he retired in 1990.

After retiring, Buckner stayed involved in baseball, coaching six years for the Toronto Blue Jays and Chicago White Sox. He and his family moved to Idaho, where Buckner also got involved in real estate and other business dealings. Among his hobbies are golf, fishing and hunting.
